His duties, as General Manager, will include, but not be limited to, establishing, implementing, supervising and coordinating the station's overall plans and goals relating to sales, public affairs and public service programming, hiring and firing, and personnel. David L. Wolfe will also ascertain local needs and problems in order to plan public service announcements and programs responsive to issues of concern in the station's service area. Mr. Wolfe will serve in the capacity of General Manager, as that term is generally defined in the radio broadcasting industry.

David L. Wolfe is a white male. He resides at 7280 Sandy Shore Drive, Hamlin, New York 14464. Mr. Wolfe was born on December 28, 1935. David L. Wolfe received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1962 from Pillsbury Baptist Bible College. He received his Masters in Christian Education in 1977 from Calvary College Freedom University. Mr. Wolfe received his Doctorate from Great Plains Baptist College in Sioux Falls, South Dakota in 1982.

As stated, David L. Wolfe intends to devote his full-time and attention to the management of the new FM facility at Brockport, New York in the event his application is granted, through comparative hearing.

At present, David L. Wolfe is the licensee of AM Radio Station WASB. Mr. Wolfe acquired WASB on January 15, 1991 and has operated as the General Manager. Mr. Wolfe spends in excess of 40 hours per week performing the duties of General Manager. Additionally, Mr. Wolfe serves as an announcer, production specialist, programmer and public affairs coordinator. If David L. Wolfe obtains the construction permit for the new FM facility at Brockport, New York, through comparative hearing, he will divest of Radio Station WASB and resign from his position as General Manager.

David L. Wolfe is the owner and manager of Causeway of Hamlin, New York, Inc., an independent insurance company. Mr. Wolfe spends approximately 20 hours per week as the owner and manager of that company. The insurance company has been in operation for over 80 years. David L. Wolfe has owned Causeway of Hamlin, New York, Inc. for 20 years.

David L. Wolfe will spend no more than 2 hours per week, on Saturdays, to meet with the two managers and review company business at Causeway of Hamlin, New York, Inc. David Wolfe's presence, on a day-to-day basis, is not required for the insurance company's continued operation and profitability.

David L. Wolfe also serves as a preacher at the Gates Baptist Temple, Gates, New York. Mr. Wolfe has served in the capacity of a preacher for 21 years. His duties include preaching on Sunday mornings, counselling, and performing a variety of other services such as weddings, funerals and visiting the sick.

Mr. Wolfe's involvement with the Gates Baptist Temple is his method of participating in civic and charitable activities in the community. The hours devoted by David L. Wolfe to the affairs of Gates Baptist Temple will, in no way, interfere with his integration proposal to manage the new FM facility at Brockport, New York on a full-time, daily basis (40 or more hours per week).

Accordingly, David L. Wolfe will seek 100% integration credit for his pledge to devote his full-time and attention to the affairs of managing the new FM facility at Brockport, New York, on a full-time, daily basis (40 or more hours per week).
